

Veterans' Advocate Insider
A newsletter for NOVA members

April/May 2015

NOVA Members Recognized for Outstanding Pro Bono Work

NOVA recently recognized 13 of its members for their outstanding participation in the CVA/NOVA Pro Bono Advocates Program over the past year. Representing 11 states and the District of Columbia, these NOVA members exemplify the pro bono spirit by providing a variety of legal services to veterans otherwise unable to afford them.

Those advocates honored for their participation in CVA/NOVA Pro Bono Program during 2014 are:

- Judge Clarke Barnes (Ill.)
- Barbara Cook (Ohio)
- Bob Goss (Texas)
- Colin Kemmerly (Ala.)
- Finkelstein & Partners (N.Y.)
- W. "Bill" T. Graham (N.Y.)
- Jeany Mark (District of Columbia)
- Mary Markovich (N.C.)
- Andrew Rutz (Ind.)
- Ronald Sykstus (Ala.)
- Michael Viterna (Mich.)
- Rebecca Waneer (Miss.)
- Winona Zimmerlin (Conn.)

CVA and NOVA sincerely thank these advocates for their generosity of time and talent on behalf of underprivileged veterans and their families who so desperately need help.